Summary of the project

“Six Steps to a Global Citizenship: a Youth Worker Guide” is a training course under the Key Action 1 of the Erasmus Plus Programme.

The project aims to foster global citizenship of young people based on their personal responsibility and active participation towards global development.

Youth workers need more capacity-building so that they can help young people to enhance their global citizenship competencies. They need to be equipped with tools and methods so that they could help youngsters to explore the links between the global issues and their daily lives and to motivate them to take an active role towards sustainable changes of the world.

- To improve the quality of youth work in Europe by introducing innovative ways and tools for promoting global citizenship among young people;
- To support the professional development of those active in youth work on promoting personal commitment and active participation of young people towards global development by mainstreaming the concept of global citizenship in youth work

The project is built on the results of the project “Six Steps to Global Citizenship” which applies the 6-steps approach to global citizenship.

Participant selection

The project will engage 20 participants from 10 countries: Lithuania, Estonia, Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Macedonia, Romania, Italy, Spain and Cyprus, with 2 trainers and 2 supporting staff, involved in educational process and logistics.

There will be 2 participants per country.

The project will also engage at least 5 participants with fewer opportunities, arising due to social, cultural and geographical obstacles.

The target groups of the participants include:

YOUTH WORKERS: the project will engage those delivering activities for youth in partner organisations including the ones providing training for youth workers and young people in the field of global citizenship, youth participation, citizenship, human rights education and other areas that overlap with the concept of global citizenship.

LEADERS AND ACTIVE MEMBERS OF YOUTH ORGANISATIONS: the project will involve those who usually act as promoters of active citizenship among young people in partner organisation which are based on the membership of young people. Their need is to look for new ways to attract young people, raise their awareness and stimulate their active civic engagement.
